PAPERS

Articulation generalization during articulation training. Leija V. McReynolds ...	149
Comparison of sensitivity to the surface and deep structure of sentences in children. Alexis A. Trembath ...	51
Constraints and the eye-voice span in right and left embedded sentences. Harry Levin, Jean Grossman, Eleanor Kaplan and Raymond Yang ...	30
Development of connotative meaning in middle and lower-class children. Anne B. Smith and Guy R. J. Lefrancois ...	367
Direct magnitude scaling method to investigate categorical versus continuous modes of perception. M. D. Vinegrad ...	114

Distinctive feature analysis of the consonantal substitution pattern. Sadanand Singh and Diana C. Frank	209
Effect of relative formant amplitude on the perceived identity of synthetic vowels. W. A. Ainsworth and J. B. Millar	328
Effect of stimulus mildness-broadness in the evaluation of accents. Howard Giles ...	262
Effects of random and response-contingent "No!" upon disfluencies of normal speakers. Roberta A. Eveslage and Robert H. Brookshire	156
Effects of time-out from speaking on the disfluency rates of normal speakers. Richard R. Martin and Kamala Rangaswamy	258
Effects of unisensory and multisensory presentation of stimuli upon naming by aphasic subjects. Beverly J. Gardiner and Robert H. Brookshire	342
Experimental technique for investigating certain linguistic and psycholinguistic phenomena. Charles W. Lachenmeyer	62
Generalization during speech sound discrimination training. Leija V. McReynolds ...	385
Grammar of working and middle class children using elicited imitations. Christina M. Jordan and W. P. Robinson	122
Index of contingency: a critique. Kenneth Pease	58
Level of listening comprehension as a function of two process variables: syntax and meaningfulness. Peter J. Gamlin	232
Levels of analysis and social class differences in language. Catherine Garvey and Ellen Dickstein	375
Location of rhythmic stress beats in English: an experimental study. I, II. George D. Allen	72, 179
Oral or written language: the consequences for cognitive development in Africa and the United States. Patricia M. Greenfield	169
Pauses, clauses, sentences. Frieda Goldman-Eisler	103
Phoneme use and the perception of meaning by children in Hawaii. Paul W. Dixon, Nobuko K. Fukuda, Verner L. Gibson and Robert O. H. Petersen ...	317
Phonetic feature of vowel length in Dutch. S. G. Nootboom and I. H. Slis ...	301
Random generation of apparent speech rhythms. Joseph Jaffe, Stephen Breskin and Louis J. Gerstman	68
Response latency differences in speech shadowing as an indicator of distinctive features of consonants. B. Thomas Scheib and Donald J. Sharf	270
Social class and code elaboration in written communication. Millicent E. Poole and T. W. Field	1
Sociolinguistic study of adjective and adverb. Jürgen K. A. Thomanek	8
Some innovations in a computer approach to the analysis of speech patterns. Henri C. Barik	196
Stability of specific meanings of certain terms on the none-all scale of amount. Ray H. Simpson and Jack Riley	393
Stress rules and performance. Mary Lou Walch	279
Structure of the English lexicon: the simplest hypothesis. John Macnamara, Ann O Cleirigh and Thomas Kellaghan	141
Teaching /ba/ and /pa/ to deaf children using real-time spectral displays. Rachel E. Stark	14
Transformational grammars of three agrammatic patients. R. Myerson and H. Goodglass	40
Variations in normal speech disfluencies. Patricia A. Broen and Gerald M. Siegel ...	219
Verbal productivity and adjective usage. Doris R. Entwisle and Catherine Garvey ...	288
